SON'S BOOKS

s and Schools.

PART-SONGS AND GLEES. By L. O. Emerson. Price $1.00. A fresh, new collection of original and selected part-songs, etc., adapted to the use of Singing Societies, Classes, Conventions, etc. Mr. Emerson has taken extra pains in preparing this new book, and it will, without doubt, find a place among the best books of its kind, and be welcomed by all who like good, yet not too difficult music. The parts are arranged on four staffs, and have piano accompaniment.

CONCERT SELECTIONS. By L. O. Emerson. Six Numbers. Price each, 25 cents; Complete $1.00. "Concert Selections" are in six numbers, averaging thirty pages of music each. Every number contains a variety of excellent selections from the best foreign and American writers. We cordially recommend "Concert Selections" to teachers or leaders throughout the country.

THE ROYAL SINGER. By L. O. Emerson. Price 60 cents. This is a book that cannot be excelled by any of its class. The veteran composer has brought to bear in this work many years of experience as teacher and convention leader, and has given us here a collection that is nearly all new, and adapted to the wants of high schools and other institutions where class-singing is in vogue.

EMERSON'S CHORUS BOOK. By L. O. Emerson. Price $1.00. Mr. Emerson has been the successful conductor of multitudes of performances by musical societies, and the choruses of this book are admirably selected and arranged. They are both sacred and secular in character.

EMERSON'S SINGING SCHOOL. By L. O. Emerson. Price 75 cents. A collection of music designed expressly for singing schools, containing a course of elementary study, glees, quartets, hymn tunes, anthems, etc. It is divided into three parts: 1, An easy and systematic beginning; 2, Easy and systematic progress; 3, An end in view which can be reached with very little labor, the progress from the beginning being more of a pleasure than a task. In the second part will be found very bright and pleasing secular music. In the third part there are about forty pages of church tunes.

THE ENCORE. By L. O. Emerson. Price 75 cents. "The Encore" has one hundred and ninety-two pages, and contains a perfect singing-school course, or course in musical notation, which fills about fifty pages. The work contains short, distinct, and easily understood explanations, plenty of progressive exercises, with and without words, and a number of bright songs for practice. They are in one, two, three, or four parts.

SINGER'S WELCOME. By L. O. Emerson. Price 75 cents. One hundred pieces of secular music, songs, duets, glees, etc., and fifty hymn tunes, anthems, etc., with a fine elementary course, and plenty of exercises. The manual signs and other new features are introduced.

NATIONAL CHORUS BOOK. By L. O. Emerson. Price $1.50. A choice collection of oratorio and opera choruses. Designed for the use of musical conventions and singing associations.

THE ONWARD. By L. O. Emerson. Price 75 cents. In this excellent book we have a thorough course in the rudiments of music and reading notes, followed by practical exercises and simple songs. Attractive, easy glees will also be found, as well as a number of easy anthems and chants.

GREETING By L. O. Emerson. Price $1.38. A very popular collection of glees, quartets and choruses. The pieces contained in this book are nearly all new, and will be found to possess unusual attractions for societies, clubs, and amateur singers.

THE SONG GREETING. By L. O. Emerson. Price 60 cents. The "Song Greeting" is an excellent book for high schools, and contains a series of vocal studies, arranged according to Mr. Emerson's progressive system; together with a superb collection of part songs, glees, choruses, anthems, and selections for devotional purposes, in great variety, and tastefully arranged.

HOUR OF SINGING. By L. O. Emerson and W. S. Tilden. Price $1.00. A book for high schools, seminaries, and the social choir; containing: 1, Elementary studies; 2, Three-part music for mixed voices; 3, Four-part music for mixed voices; 4, Three-part music for female voices; 5, Sacred and devotional music. Has had remarkable success as a high school class book.

SONG BELLS. By L. O. Emerson. Price 50 cts. A first-class general collection of school songs, brought out under the best auspices. The songs are bright, fresh, tastefully arranged, and cannot fail to please all who try them.

GOLDEN WREATH. By L. O. Emerson. Price 50 cents. A choice collection of favorite melodies. Designed for the use of schools, seminaries, select classes, etc. Also a complete course of elementary instruction upon the Pestalozzian system, with numerous exercises for practice.

MERRY CHIMES. By L. O. Emerson. Price 50 cents. A collection of songs, duets, trios, and sacred pieces for juvenile classes, public schools, and seminaries. To which are prefixed complete elementary instructions and attractive exercises.

THE IDEAL. By L. O. Emerson. Price 75 cts. A book for singing schools, musical institutes, and conventions. It has a complete course of elementary instruction, besides a large number of duets, quartets, hymn tunes, and anthems.

CHEERFUL VOICES. By L. O. Emerson. Price 50 cents. A collection of songs, duets, trios, and sacred pieces for juvenile classes, public schools, and seminaries, to which is prefixed a complete and attractive course of elementary instruction.

SACRED CANTATAS

FOR SCHOOLS AND CLASSES.

To Societies a discount of 25 per cent. will be given from the prices (retail) named in this list.
Copies mailed, post-paid, on receipt of retail price.

Send for Circulars containing Descriptions of these Cantatas.

BELSHAZZAR. By J. A. Butterfield. Price $1.00.

An effective cantata in five acts, and one of the most celebrated among similar works.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST; or, THE FALL of BABYLON. By Geo. F. Root. Price 50 cents.

A dramatic cantata in ten scenes.

DANIEL; or, THE CAPTIVITY AND RESTORATION. By Geo. F. Root and Wm. B. Bradbury. Price 50 cents. Libretto (words only), 12 cents.

A well-written work, designed for the use of choral societies, singing-classes, etc. There is no dramatic action.

ESTHER, THE BEAUTIFUL QUEEN. By Wm. B. Bradbury. Price 50 cents. Libretto (words only), 12 cents.

This cantata is so well known throughout the land that no extended description is necessary.

JOSEPH'S BONDAGE. By J. M. Chadwick. Price 80 cents.

The music of this cantata is more difficult than that of the others mentioned in our list, but will amply repay all who wish to study it.

LYDIA. A Cantata for Sunday Schools. By J. E. Trowbridge. Price 20 cents.

This entertaining little book is in two scenes.

OUR SAVIOUR. An Oratorio for Juvenile Classes. By Wm. Williams. Price 40 cents.
